

Blabberize FFA Review

Submitted by Jennifer Waters and used in cooperation with the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

The materials that appear in this document may be freely reproduced for educational/training activities. There is no requirement to obtain special permission for such uses. We do, however, ask that the following statement appear on all reproductions:

Blabberize FFA Review, by Jennifer Waters
Materials produced for classroom use in conjunction with permission from the University of Illinois Agricultural Education Program.

This permission statement is limited to the reproduction of material for educational/training events. Systematic or large-scale reproduction or distribution (more than one hundred copies per year)—or inclusion of items in publications for sale—may be done only with prior written permission. Also, reproduction on computer disk or by any other electronic means requires prior written permission. Contact the University of Illinois Agricultural Education Program to obtain special permission.

The University of Illinois and its affiliated entities, in addition to the individual submitting the materials, assumes no liability to original work or activities therein.

Agricultural Education Program
College of Agricultural,
Consumer and Environmental Sciences

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

© 2012 University of Illinois Board of Trustees

Using blabberize.com

Check out this link to get an idea about what you are doing today:

<http://blabberize.com/view/id/543821>

Your challenge is to work with a partner to master this site and tell others a little about the FFA! You will need to create your own blabber that will tell others about the FFA by including 5 main points from your notes or what you have learned in the classroom so far.

You should list these five things here:

1. .
2. .
3. .
4. .
5. .

Here are the directions to get started:

1. Go to blabberize.com
2. Click on "Make" in the middle of the page toward the bottom.
3. Find a picture to upload. It could be you or even something you found online. (Ex: A pig could tell about FFA or maybe a picture of a person on the FFA website could do it...be creative!)
4. Crop the area of the picture you want to use. Then click blue arrow. Do NOT click "GO".
5. It will add a mouth that you can drag to where it should go and resize it. Click the blue arrow again.

6. Next you will need to add sound. Work with your partner to write your script here. You should have at least 10 sentences that include introducing who is talking, what they want to tell you about and the five main ideas. This should encourage others to join FFA!

Now that you have your script, select the microphone. Click on the circle to record your voice and click it again to end the recording. You may want to record again if it sounds strange or if you make a mistake.

7. Preview you blabber and click “Ok” and “Save”.

8. You will have to create a new account.

9. Set your video as private, include your name in description so you get credit and save.

10. Click “Share it” to get the web address. Then, using your e-mail, send the link to Mrs. Kirby at jkirby@a-ccentral.us

HAVE FUN AND BE CREATIVE!

Here is what you will be graded on for a total of 35 possible points:

Did you create a work of art?	10 points possible
Did you blabber about at least 5 things to know about FFA?	15 points (3 pts each)
Did you write your script on this handout?	10 points (1 pt each)